

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

Case No. 1:15-cr-108
Litkovitz, M.J.

vs.

BRYAN HARRIS, Defendant.

DETENTION ORDER

This matter is before the Court following a detention hearing on a Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6) and 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1) at which defendant appeared represented by counsel. The government moved for detention on the basis that the defendant poses a risk of danger to the community if released on bond. Having heard all arguments and having considered the nature of the alleged supervised release violations, the undersigned finds the defendant has not met his burden by clear and convincing evidence that he will not pose a danger to the community if released on bond. As alleged in the petition, the defendant has continued to view sexually explicit materials and possess unauthorized internet capable devices, showing a pattern maladaptive behavior. The numerous instances of the defendant's willful disregard of his probation officer's directives and conditions of supervision show a disregard for Court-ordered conditions of supervision. In addition, the defendant's aggressive and threatening behavior towards his probation officer and women he has attempted to meet up with at bars and through texts also present a danger to others. The defendant's ongoing pattern of noncompliance poses a risk of danger to the community if he is released on bond. Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS the defendant detained pending final hearing on the supervised release violations before Judge Barrett.

DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
